

Student Track | September 15-17, 2025

Overview

The Public Policy and Advocacy Summit Student Track gives high school students a unique opportunity to participate in the ACSI Public Policy and Advocacy Summit in Washington, D.C. The Student Track equips student leaders with firsthand exposure to policymaking and legal processes. Participants will not only gain valuable insights into how laws are formulated and implemented but will also connect with influential policymakers, legal experts, and advocates in the field. Students will attend with their advisors, participate in designated main sessions, and join student-only sessions designed to deepen their understanding of policy and advocacy.

Key Components

- 1. Summit Participation: Attend Summit sessions with policymakers and experts
- 2. Networking Opportunities: Build connections that shape future academic and career paths
- 3. Leadership Development: Enhance leadership skills through workshops, roundtables, and discussions
- 4. Policy in Action Exposure: Advocate on Capital Hill
